Presented by

The Senior Class of 1966

"One taper lights a thousand,
Yet shines as it has shone;
And the humblest light may kindle
A brighter than its own."

Since time began for us, you have been the guiding light in our lives. We learned to talk by listening to you; you held our hands as we learned to walk; we patterned our thoughts by yours. Through the years you have been understanding and loving as we learned, developed, and broadened our worlds. You stood by us and had faith in us when no one else did. For all these reasons and many more, we dedicate this '66 "Mustang" to you . . . OUR PARENTS.

On August 30, 1965, nineteen students entered Morven High School for their last and hopefully their best year. Our last year at Old MHS was lighted by hard work and many enjoyments: selling annual ads, Junior-Senior, and most of all commencement.

Last Will and Testament

I, Jack Adams, leave my ability to get out of school at 12:30 to Stuart, and my love of Joe Henry's Place to Lawson.

I, Ellen Ballard, leave my height to Ann Canipe.

I, William Carpenter, leave my ability to drive to Myra and my bus, 23, to a good driver.

I, Richard Gaddy, leave my bad luck to the Junior Class and my grin to someone who never smiles.

I, Gene Harney, leave my ability to break horses to Ronnie Morgan and my Algebra I seat to Robert Carpenter.

I, Frank Huntley, leave my love of the back row in the auditorium to George Truman.

I, Ressie Johnson, leave my patience to the Junior Class.

I, Richard Johnson, leave my personality to Judy and my ability to anyone to skip grades.

I, Hugh Livingston, leave my brains and athletic ability to my brother, Jerry.

I, Lonnie Ray Lowery, leave my mechanical knowledge and ability to get along with Mr. Witherspoon to Ray McLaurin, and my ability to go steady in my senior year to my brother, David, who needs it.

I, Faye McLaurin, leave Mary Lowery my ability to meet Ricky Gilmore.

I, Jack Moore, leave my love of M. H. S. to "Pee Wee" Freeman.

I, Cynthia Ratliff, leave to Ann Canipe my ability to drive a bus and to someone who will appreciate it, my ability to go steady for three years of high school.

I, Harry Rhynes, leave my quiet ways to anyone with a big mouth.

I, Martha Short, will my smallness to anyone who needs it.

I, Sue Vaughn, will my ability to be late for everything, no matter what the circumstances, to Bill Vaughn, who is always hurrying me.

I, Joe Wilkes, leave my hot temper and the phrase "Just hang in there with it!" to Susan Diggs, in hopes she will use them both often.

I, Robert Williams, leave my ability to play the guitar to Tom Phillips.

I, Steve Williamson, leave my ability to drive a car upside down around third base to Joe Morgan, and my love for horses to Ronnie Morgan.

A Night to Remember

Junior-Senior Prom

April 29, 1966

Under star-studded skies the Senior Class gathered on the night of April twenty-ninth as guests of the Juniors. By the side of the moonlit river traveled by smoothly gliding steamboats, the guests and their hosts enjoyed dancing to the music of the Rhythm-aires. A gracefully curved bridge, crossing a sparkling stream, and a quaint wishing well added to the loveliness of the scene. The Seniors will treasure with grateful remembrance the beauties of .....

Commencement

And now, classmates, the last word is for you. The time has come for us to say good-by to one another and to our school. Though we anticipate a bright future, we do not wish to break the ties that have bound us together for so many years. As we, the Class of '66 say farewell, we know that we will forever be joined by the memories of the fellowship and happiness we have shared here.

Hard work and fun--that's what the '66 edition of the "Mustang" has meant for the staff. We could never have completed our task without the guidance and aid of Mrs. Thomas, our advisor. I hope we have made this annual one that will bring hours of enjoyment to each student and be treasured always by the '66 graduates.

Sincerely,

Sue Vaughn

Alice,
I want to wish you all the luck in the world because you are a wonderful person and I will always treasure our friendship. God bless you and may He keep you in His loving care.

Love,
Peggy

alice,
it doesn't seem possible that we're finally seniors, does it? I'll always remember you as one of the sweetest and nicest friends I have. Good luck and may God be with you always.

Love
Linda

Dear Alice,

I used to say a wonderful SENIOR year. You'll probably give me a fit, but I had so many good times at school — and out — like tonight. It really proved to have cost a — what ever — I say — and it's outstanding for a friend. I've got to go. But write to me and always. Love ya Jan

Dear Alice,

We are finally Seniors, I know you're are happy that we are. You have always been nice and sweet. Stay that way.

Ah,
Well we did
make it after all, Seniors!!
I had decide just what
was going to write but right
now it doesn't seem appropriate.
All these years will linger in my memory forever; like swaping Dances
Bond Books; ball games + P.J. parties albums; friendship rings + the
Bro. Hop passed
of your friends. I'm glad I got you
Let's make our last year the best
"Gray Ghost" + really rock the
undergrades + show those punk
a good time really is what having
Mrs. Lewis class + study hall were all days + nights with you. Good Luck wonderful as you are.

Love you
Karen

P.S. I won't say goodbye,
but say see ya
soon.

Dear Karen,

Well, how does it feel to be a "mighty" Senior?
One more year and you will join the ranks of
"ye olde graduates."

With your great ability I know you will have a truly fruitful future. Success will always be yours.

Your friendship has meant a great deal to me, and I hope we will continue to be friends always. Well, the space is getting small so I'll close.

Love ya,
Ellen
